

Understanding Health Disparities: Sustainable Local Food Impact on Communities' Health and Social Issues

Opener Speaker

⇒ Jenita McGowan, Mayor's Office of Sustainability

Local Speakers

⇒ Mansfield Frazier

Neighborhood Solutions, Inc./Chateau Hough

⇒ Tim Tramble

Burten, Bell, Carr/Bridgeport Café-CornUcopia Place

⇒ Shawn Belt

Refugee Empowerment Agricultural Program (REAP)

Panel Reactors – Local agency representatives

⇒ Eileen Seeholzer

Obesity & Weight Management Program/MetroHealth Medical Ctr

⇒ Elaine Borawski

Prevention Research Center/CASE

⇒ Teleange' Thomas

Healthy Eating & Active Living/Sisters of Charity Fdn of Cleveland

⇒ Vedette Gavin

Community Health Fellow/Saint Luke's Foundation

Networking Reception/Tables showcasing local programs

Objectives:

- Increase understanding of local food initiatives utilizing community assets to address multi-faceted issues such as food deserts, urban health, and employment
- Build a dialogue between academic researchers and local communities to facilitate appropriate research utilizing community assets to address health disparities
- Explore opportunities in community based research

▶ 4:00-6:00 PM (PROGRAM)
6:00 PM (NETWORKING
RECEPTION/RESOURCE TABLES)

▶ THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 2013

▶ CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY
STUDENT CENTER
THIRD FLOOR BALLROOM A/B
2121 EUCLID AVENUE

▶ PARKING AT LOT SG CORNER
OF CARNEGIE AVE & E. 21ST ST

▶ FORUM IS FREE BUT SPACE
LIMITED & REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. REGISTER AT
K.DANIEL@CSUOHIO.EDU
OR 216-687-3551

Supported by Centers for Excellence grant through the National Institutes on Health/National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities (P60 MD002265) in partnership with the Center for Health Equity, Cleveland State University and CASE Center for Reducing Health Disparities MetroHealth Medical Center

